EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Emmanuel A. Rivera on 7/7/2006.
3. The application has been amended as follow:

Claim 1 (Currently amended):

A system for centralized network usage tracking comprising:

a plurality of web servers configured to return first content to requesting client devices;

a central logging server;

wherein the returned first content includes a reference that comprises a Hypertext Markup Language (HTML) tag, to request second content from the central logging server; and wherein the central logging server logs requests for the first content in response to requests for the second content, and logs information received in cookies accompanying requests for the second content.

Claim 2 (Previously presented):

A system as recited in claim 1, wherein the plurality of web servers, the central logging server, and the plurality of requesting client devices are communicatively coupled via the Internet.

Claim 3 (Previously presented):

A system as recited in claim 1, wherein the reference has embedded therein information identifying the first content.

Claim 4 (Canceled)

Claim 5 (Canceled)

Claim 6 (Previously presented):

A system as recited in claim 1, wherein each of the plurality of web servers further logs information regarding the request for the first content [[locally]].

Art Unit: 2155

Claim 7 (Previously presented):

A system as recited in claim 1, wherein the references comprise references to one or more transparent graphic images.

Claim 8 (Previously presented):

A method for centralized network usage tracking comprising:

receiving requests for first content; and returning, in response to the requests, the requested first content, wherein said first content includes a reference that comprises a Hypertext Markup Language (HTML) tag, to request for second content; and wherein the request for [[to]] second content [[that]] causes information regarding the request for the first content to be logged at a remote logging server in the form of cookies.

Claim 9 (Previously presented):

A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the references to the second content refer to content available from the remote logging server.

Claim 10 (Previously presented):

A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the second content comprises a transparent graphic image.

Claim 11 (Previously presented):

A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the second content comprises one or more graphic images.

Claim 12-14 (Canceled)

Claim 15 (Previously presented):

A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the second content comprises a web page.

Claim 16 (Original):

One or more computer-readable memories containing a computer program that is executable by a processor to perform the method recited in claim 8.

Claims 17-45 (Canceled)

Reason for allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record does not teach or suggest, individually or in combination, a plurality of web servers configured to return first contents to requesting client device, wherein the returned first content includes a reference to request second content from the central logging server, and the central logging server logs requests for the first content in response to requests for the second content and logs information received in cookies accompanying requests for the second content in light of other features described in independent claims 1, and 8.
5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Liang-che Alex Wang whose telephone number is (571)272-3992. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday thru Friday, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.
